National Sex Offender Public Registry (NSOPR)

- May 2005 Dept of Justice chose Maryland as one of the 4 states to participate in the pilot. (Other states are Ohio, New Jersey and Pennsylvania)
- Pilot was presented to the U.S. Attorney General Gonzales, Acting Assistant Attorney General Henke, and BJA Director Herraiz and given the green light
- Vision is a national search site that all state registries will connect to and allow public access to one central area to view all Sex Offenders nationally
 - Future plans to have 20 states participating in the next 60 days.
